

This orphan baby girl had no name.

This immigrant little girl was ridiculed and excluded because she was different.

“Now I’m running for Mayor to make sure that everyone is included.”

– Katjana Ballantyne

This self-made woman made a name for herself as an accomplished leader who delivers results.

Katjana's inclusive leadership has accomplished:

- ✓ Increased affordable housing and access to jobs: She will keep using every tool to make Somerville more affordable.
- ✓ National leadership in combating climate change: She wrote the Green New Deal for Somerville, and calls for carbon negativity by 2050.
- ✓ Advanced equity and inclusion: She'll keep creating inclusion and every kind of equity; racial & social, economic, environmental, and more.

Katjana was the first in her family to go to college. She used student loans and worked as a waitress and house cleaner, to earn her BA and MBA.

With 30 years of experience in business, nonprofits and government, Katjana is uniquely qualified to understand and align the incentives and strengths of all stakeholders to solve complex problems. She has served seven years on the city council, and was twice elected city council president.
